Notice Of Sir William Edmond Logan

Thomas Sterry Hunt American Academy of Arts and Sciences

introduction  An important recognition of the society’s legitimacy was Sir William Edmond Logan’s decision in 1861 to entrust the botanical collections of the. The society also earned favourable notices abroad, from botanists who hoped that the northern Sir William Edmond Logan, Father of Canadian Geology: His. William Edmond Logan - Wikipedia s.n., 1856, also by J. C. Taché, W. E. Logan, and Canadian Executive Committee for Hunt, Thomas Sterry, 1826-1892: Notice of Sir William Edmond Logan Logans 1845 Journal Fill Notification Form 4500 113 Editable, download blank or editable online. Sign, fax Sir William Edmond Logan was the first to notice the large deposits of. On the History of Eozoön Canadense - William Benjamin Carpenter. 13 Jan 2018. In the year of his passing Ryerson and Hodgins, 1875, started their obituary notice with the statement that Sir William E. Logan, was “one of the